

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Brattleboro People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back.

The constant aching of a bad back, the weariness, the tired feeling, the pains and aches of kidney ailments result seriously if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

A Brattleboro citizen shows you what to do.

D. D. Dutton, R. F. D. No. 5, Brattleboro, Vt., says: "The work in which I am engaged is very hard on the back and kidneys and I suffered a great deal from backache and lameness across my loins. I could not rest well at night, as I was very nervous. During the day I was annoyed a great deal by the frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I tried several remedies but found nothing that would relieve me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Brattleboro Drug Co.'s Drug Store. I used two boxes and at the end of that time was free from kidney trouble. I can now get my proper rest at night and feel like a different man."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

TOWNSHEND.

Arthur J. Holden Recommended for Appointment as Postmaster in Keene.

Arthur J. Holden, a prominent lawyer and worker in Democratic politics in Keene, N. H., has been recommended by Congressman Stevens for appointment as postmaster in that city and there is almost no doubt but that he will receive the appointment and enter upon the duties of his position at an early date.

Mr. Holden was born in Townshend Nov. 23, 1863, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis J. Holden. The house where he was born is known as the Holden homestead and has been in the family for more than a generation.

Mr. Holden received his early education in the common schools of Townshend and Grafton. He attended Vermont academy and later graduated from Glenwood classical seminary in West Brattleboro. He lived in Townshend for about 10 years, after which he moved to Grafton where he remained until he was about 21 years of age, when he moved to Malden, Mass. He lived in Malden for about three years and while there studied law in the office of Carpenter & Towle at 10 Tremont street, and attended the Albany law school. While living in Malden he took the special student's course at Harvard law school.

In 1891 he moved to Bellows Falls and went into the insurance business in partnership with E. L. Walker, where he remained three years. In 1894 he moved to West Virginia, and attended the law department of the West Virginia university and graduated with high honors in 1893. He came to Keene the following October and was admitted to the New Hampshire bar the following February. At one time F. D. E. Stove of Brattleboro, county clerk now, was his partner. He has been actively engaged in politics and has been a staunch Democrat. During the campaign of 1900 he was beaten by only 10 votes, running as the Democratic candidate for mayor of Keene. He has been county auditor several years.

Price of Wood Unusually High.

Woodpiles are growing rapidly at nearly every house, and are now larger than they have been in two years. The teamsters are taking advantage of the low sliding to get the wood off the hills, as much of it was not gotten off last winter. Horace Gale has just drawn 10 cords of rock maple for Mr. Burke at the Inn, and A. F. Stone is drawing a large quantity for G. W. Powers, also to the Inn. George Wood is drawing several cords for W. H. Taft to the village schoolhouse. Perley Allene has drawn 16 cords for Byron Thompson. The price is higher than it has been in many years, some say higher than ever was known here.

WOOD GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman B. Wood Surprised by Children and Their Families.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman B. Wood had a pleasant family gathering at their home Jan. 14, the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary. Their children and their families planned to give them a surprise, and it was genuine. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Greenfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood and their four children, Alvin, Lawrence, Leola and Fern, of Putney. A dinner was served at noon and a social afternoon was spent, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by both parents and children.

In the evening other friends and neighbors, who were interested in the occasion, came to manifest to Mr. and Mrs. Wood the good will and the friendship of the people who had been associated with them in their home town so many years. A handsome cake was brought, which immediately was named the bride's cake. Many joined in the games and social time, and refreshments of sandwiches, cake and fruit were served. Mr. and Mrs. Wood received many presents and postcards of congratulation.

Lyman B. Wood was a son of D. Parkman and Eunice (Blood) Wood and was born Aug. 29, 1839, on West hill on the farm now owned by Horace L. Scott. Bigelow, where the marriage took place. Mr. and Mrs. Wood began their married life in the little house at the four corners, West hill, which has since been burned, moving three years later to the well-known Merros Ferry place and living there until May, 1905, when they moved to their present home.

THIS WEATHER

There is a long winter ahead of us so take time by the forelock and come in now and buy the stuff to keep yourself and animals warm. It pays.—Rexford Benson Elliot street.

Moran & Co., Main street.

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Stephenson, on the Pacific Coast.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.—"I was sick with what four doctors called Nervous Prostration, was treated by them for several years, would be better for a while then back in the old way again. I had palpitation of the heart very bad, fainting spells, and was so nervous that a spoon dropping to the floor would nearly kill me, could not lift the lightest weight without making me sick. In fact was about as sick and miserable as a person could be. I saw your medicines advertised and thought I would try them, and am so thankful I did for they helped me at once. I took about a dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and also used the Sensitive Wash. Since then I have used them whenever I felt sick. Your remedies are the only doctor I employ. You are at liberty to publish this letter."—MRS. W. STEPHENSON, Independence, Oregon.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HODGSON, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I admitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—MRS. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
